

GIS Network Meeting, 3/23/18

MDC, Hartford

Meeting Notes

Roughly 50 members in attendance

9:05 – Steve B. Welcome Address

- Snowstorm management, how to best update closure and damage reports

9:15 – Amanda Ryan, UConn CLEAR, MS4 Update

- Priority area updates
- Statewide 1ft IC data
- MS4 data available in map viewer on MS4 website and download on CT ECO

9:25 – Mark Goetz – MetroCOG, Statewide Planimetrics

- Overview of existing data, sources
- Recommendations on how to combine, use, maintain
- Identifiers: parcel ID, Building ID, OPM facility ID, LOMA ID, Historic Property ID
- Update to aerial photo story map, new geocortex tool – will add URL to Network website

9:42 – Jeff Nolan, Central Cemetery of Brookfield, CT, “cemetarian”, Auggie DeFrance

- Supply chain management
- Willingness to cooperate, consolidate infrastructure, codify for interoperability
- How one successful industry can transform another

Steering Committee Vote

Education: Cary Chadwick

Non-Profit: Steve Perry

State: Dan Czaja

Utility: Keith Anderson

Member at Large: George Obeng

Member at Large: Jeff Nolan

Reminder: Spring NEARC at UConn – Tuesday, May 8th, early rate ends April 9th

Steve Birney – Norwalks’ sanitary and stormwater field data collection

- Tough books with ArcGIS desktop installed, versioned gdfs

Dan Martin, Northeast regional Geodetic Advisor, NOAA dan.martin@noaa.gov

New Datums are coming in 2022

- In 2022 National Geodetic Survey replace NAD 83 and NAVD 88
- NAD 83 and NAVD 88 re-defined in 2022
- CM-accuracy access to all coordinates
- Will share slides with Steven for distribution on website

Tom Schwartzman, Esri – Introduction to ArcGIS Pro

- Pro overview and demo
- ArcMap NOT going away in 2022

Steering committee executive committee vote meeting will happen during SC meeting on April 6.